MAIN OBJECTIVES

- Strengthen the cultural, linguistic, and educational influence of France
  - Promotion of the French language and its values - Francophonie
    - “Plan for the French language and plurilingualism” (March 2018) promoting the return of French as a lingua franca
  - “Development Plan for French Education Abroad” (October 2019)
    - Target is to double the number of students enrolled in the French education network abroad by 2030, from 350,000 to 700,000 in twelve years
- Develop attractiveness of France through scientific, tourist, and economic diplomacy
  - International student mobility strategy
    - “Bienvenue en France” (2018) with an objective of welcoming 500,000 students in France by 2027
  - Attract more foreign tourists
    - “Destination France” strategy sets the target of 100 million tourists hosted and 60 billion euros in revenue in France by 2020/2
  - Promote attractiveness of France in terms of investments

POLICY CONTEXT

<sup>1</sup> Combines cooperation and cultural action services (SCAC) within the embassies, Institut français and its branches, Alliance française, AEFÉ education network, EFE schools abroad, Campus France branches, French research institutes abroad (UMIFRE), and tourist offices (Atout-France).

<sup>2</sup> The number combines FTE staff of Atout France, AEFÉ, Campus France, Institut Français, Alliance française. Not included is the diplomatic mission working in cultural affairs. UMIFRE staff includes researchers only. The actual number of agents in the network is difficult to estimate. In 2019, MEAE had 1619 staff on payroll for external cultural action, including 575 agents working under the Programme 185. In 2020, the operator employment ceiling is 6,324 FTEs (AEFE, Atout-France, Campus France, Institut Français). The overall tendency has been to reduce the number of permanent staff and transfer to contract agents and local recruits. Source: Senate Finance Committee (budget documents).

- Cultural diplomacy as “one of the three fundamental pillars” of French foreign policy
- Reinvigorated ECP approach under the Macron administration with stronger footprint in Europe and emerging countries
